Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Rolf Maichel arrived in Pierre, South Dakota, in the fall of 1986 from Hamburg, West Germany, with his wife, Monika, and four of his five children; and,

WHEREAS, Mr. Maichel participated in a one-school-year foreign exchange program with Mr. Mickelson to teach Latin I and Latin II, in addition to German classes, in the Pierre school system; and,

WHEREAS, His students are very grateful for the unique opportunity to become acquainted and inspired by Rolf Maichel; so much so that these students wish to emphasize that long after his teaching committment in Pierre has been fulfilled, his influence and friendship will be cherished and remembered; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper that his students and friends honor and give thanks to Rolf Maichel for sharing a portion of his life with them; and,

WHEREAS, It is also fitting and proper that the citizens of the great state of South Dakota recognize and give thanks to such a dedicated teacher as Rolf Maichel;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the day of the Latin Banquet, April 11, 1987, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Ninth Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
